Attractions

GOLF & MORE

Hitting the links is no longer a seasonal pastime in our Border City; with great 18-hole golf courses nearby and an indoor golf simulation course available too, you can practice your swing come rain or shine!

Lets Golf

Beat the weather and play indoors all year round. With a fully licensed lounge, a pro shop, and a golf pro available, you'll be able to work on your swing year-round.

BUD MILLER ALL SEASONS PARK

Bud Miller All Seasons Park is a 200-acre playground boasting incredible amenities, including tennis courts, a mini-golf course and a new outdoor spray park. When the snow falls, head out and discover ice skating on the lake, and cross country skiing. With beautiful scenery and a tranquil atmosphere, Bud Miller All Seasons Park is an excellent place to enjoy a picnic, go for a walk, play sports or host a special event.

59 Ave. T: (780) 875-4497

ARTS & CULTURE

There are numerous local artisans who call Lloydminster 'home'; and whether you're looking to check out an art gallery, have your portrait painted, or head to the theatre to experience a live show in the evening, you'll find just what you're looking for here.

Lloydminster Agricultural Exhibition Association

No matter what the event (a formal gala, rockin' concert, local culinary event, or some of the city's largest events: Lloydminster Colonial Days or the Westridge GMC CPCA Finals), you'll be sure to find it hosted here. With rooms of every size, it's no surprise that the Exh is the place to be.

THE BORDER MARKERS

You can't drive through Lloyd without noticing these bright orange pillars, which are the 'World's Largest Border Markers'. Marking the 4th Meridian and provincial boundary, these 100' pillars symbolize much more than just two provinces meeting; they represent the themes of Oil & Gas, the Barr Colonists, Agriculture, and First Nations & Métis. Take your photo with one foot on each side and be 'in two places at once'!

SWIMMING

Splish, splash! Nothing says fun like a cannonball into the water! Lloydminster is home to two amazing facilities for you and your whole family to enjoy. Grab your towels and head out to experience them for yourself.

Lloydminster Leisure Centre

Experience Lloydminster's only public indoor pool located in Bud Miller Park. Fully equipped with a sauna, steam-room, hot tub, waterslide, indoor wave-pool, lane-swimming pool, and more. You'll have a great time no matter your age! Swimming lessons, day camps, fitness classes, and more are also available.

T: (780) 875-4497
2902 - 59 Ave.

NEARBY ATTRACTIONS

We would be remiss if we didn't tell you about a few great attractions within a short 15 minute driving distance. Grab your kids and head out to a few of these popular destinations – or go solo. You'll have a great time either way!

A Bit Extreme

Grab the crew and head west on Highway 16, and north on Range Road 14, for fun no matter the weather! This indoor facility offers lazer tag, climbing walls, arcade games, and more.
