

The Southern Alberta Investment and Trade Initiative (SAITI) wants to share the story about how Southern Alberta is a great place to do business. To do this, we asked some of our local businesses to share about their experience doing business in Southern Alberta and accessing the advantages we have in location, infrastructure, technology, sustainability and the value chain.

View full playlist