

The Regina 25 celebrates people who have helped transform Regina's community and economy – making our city a place where people and businesses thrive. EDR received over 150 nominations from community members. A panel of five respected and recognizable voices narrowed the list to 25 winners across five categories.

